
Bob:

This is the sacred corner of the old lab where you functioned so faithfully and so efficiently. I sincerely appreciate all the good work you have done to establish our amateur station and get it going on such a good basis.

If your work of the future is as good as that done here you will be a success.

Very sincerely.

W. J. Seeley.